

Privacy Policy for Peptica

Effective Date: 6/3/2026

Website: peptica.tech

Contact: rjohnson10712@outlook.com

This Privacy Policy explains how Peptica ("Peptica," "we," "us," or "our") collects, uses, shares, and retains information when you use peptica.tech and related services, including free and paid features.

Peptica is a software platform that aggregates and organizes information related to peptides, research compounds, suppliers, products, and related resources. The platform provides search, discovery, comparison, and informational tools designed to help users locate and evaluate information available within the marketplace.

Peptica is intended only for users located in the United States who are at least 18 years old. Do not use Peptica if you are outside the United States or under 18.

1. No Medical Services

Peptica is not a healthcare provider, pharmacy, laboratory, medical practice, or telehealth service. Peptica does not provide medical advice, diagnosis, treatment recommendations, prescriptions, or healthcare services.

2. Information We Collect

We currently collect limited personal information needed to operate accounts, subscriptions, search access, saved features, security, and support.

2.1. Account Information

When you create an account, sign in, or use account-related features, we may collect:

- Email address
- Firebase authentication identifiers, including user ID and authentication provider information
- Authentication session information and ID tokens used to verify access
- Subscription or entitlement status, such as whether your account has access to paid features
- Account creation and last-seen timestamps

We use Firebase Authentication and Firebase Admin services to help create, manage, verify, and secure user accounts.

2.2. Payment and Subscription Information

Peptica uses Stripe to process payments, subscriptions, checkout sessions, and customer billing portal sessions. We do not directly collect, store, or process your full credit card number, debit card number, bank account information, or other complete payment credentials.

Stripe may collect and process payment information, billing details, transaction records, fraud-prevention data, customer identifiers, subscription records, and related information according to its own privacy practices.

Peptica may receive limited payment-related information from Stripe, such as:

- Checkout email
- Stripe customer ID
- Checkout session ID
- Subscription ID and subscription status

- Payment status
- Entitlement identifiers and subscription metadata

We use this information to create checkout sessions, verify subscription access, provide paid features, support account setup after payment, and open Stripe's customer portal.

2.3. Search, Saved Listing, and Alert Information

Peptica provides search, filtering, comparison, saved listing, and alert features. Depending on how you use the service, we may process or store:

- Search queries and filter selections submitted to the service
- Supplier, peptide, product, listing, or category queries
- Saved listings or favorites
- Saved alert queries and alert creation timestamps
- Comparison selections and supplier-detail requests while you use the service

Search and filter requests are used to return relevant results. Saved listings and saved alerts may be stored so they can be associated with your account, email, or temporary app user ID.

Peptica does not use search queries, saved listings, or alerts to provide medical advice, diagnosis, treatment recommendations, prescribing guidance, or healthcare services.

2.4. Usage, Device, and Technical Information

We may automatically collect limited technical information needed to operate, debug, meter, and secure the website, such as:

- IP address
- Browser type
- Device type
- Operating system
- Log data
- Request metadata
- Authentication session information
- Cookie, local storage, or similar session identifiers

We may also use a temporary app user ID to support free-search limits, unauthenticated sessions, saved features, checkout continuity, and abuse prevention.

2.5. Cookies, Local Storage, and Similar Technologies

Peptica may use cookies, local storage, session tokens, or similar technologies for essential website functions, including:

- Keeping users logged in
- Managing Firebase authentication persistence
- Maintaining a temporary app user ID
- Counting free searches
- Remembering checkout or entitlement email information
- Supporting sign-in and account setup flows
- Securing accounts and preventing abuse

Firebase Authentication, Google Sign-In, Stripe, and related infrastructure may use cookies or similar technologies to support authentication, checkout, fraud prevention, and security.

We do not currently use advertising cookies, retargeting pixels, or third-party analytics cookies. If we add these later, we will update this Privacy Policy and, where required, provide additional notice or consent options.

2.6. Third-Party Services Loaded by the Website

Peptica may use third-party services that are loaded in or called by the website, including:

- Firebase and Google services for authentication, Google Sign-In, account security, and related infrastructure
- Stripe and Stripe.js for embedded checkout, subscription management, billing, payment processing, and fraud prevention
- Google-hosted font services or Next.js font infrastructure to display site fonts

These providers may receive technical information such as IP address, browser details, device data, request information, or identifiers as needed to provide their services.

2.7. Health Information We Do Not Request

Peptica does not request or require users to provide medical conditions, treatment history, medication usage, peptide usage, health records, weight-loss goals, or similar health information.

Peptica also does not request or require GPS location from your device, user reviews, ratings, or comments.

Do not submit medical or health information to Peptica. Search terms, saved listings, or alert queries may reveal health-related interests or inferences if you choose to enter them, but Peptica does not request that you provide medical or health information.

3. How We Use Information

We use collected information to:

- Create and manage user accounts
- Authenticate users
- Provide access to free or paid features
- Verify subscription entitlement
- Process subscriptions through Stripe
- Operate search, filtering, comparison, saved listing, and alert features
- Maintain free-search limits and session continuity
- Maintain website security
- Prevent fraud, abuse, scraping, or unauthorized access
- Respond to user support, privacy, or deletion requests
- Comply with legal obligations
- Improve, maintain, debug, and troubleshoot the service

We do not use your information to provide medical advice, healthcare recommendations, diagnosis, treatment, or prescribing services.

4. Payments and Subscriptions

Peptica may offer paid monthly subscription access. The final subscription price is shown at checkout.

Payments are processed by Stripe. When you subscribe, Stripe may collect payment and billing information directly from you. Peptica receives limited payment-related information from Stripe, such as subscription status, customer identifiers, payment status, checkout email, session identifiers, and entitlement-related information.

Peptica uses this information only to manage account setup, access to paid features, customer support, billing portal access, fraud prevention, and related subscription operations.

Canceling a subscription may stop future billing, but Stripe may retain payment and transaction records as required by law, regulation, fraud prevention, accounting, tax compliance, or its own legal obligations.

5. How We Share Information

We may share limited information with service providers who help operate Peptica, including:

5.1. Firebase / Google

Used for account authentication, Google Sign-In, authentication persistence, user management, security, and related infrastructure.

5.2. NeonDB / Database Hosting

Used to store account-related service data and application data, such as user identifiers, email addresses, entitlement-related status, account timestamps, supplier listings, product listings, and other data needed to operate the service.

5.3. Stripe

Used for payment processing, embedded checkout, subscription management, billing portal sessions, fraud prevention, and billing-related services.

5.4. Legal or Safety Disclosures

We may disclose information if we believe it is necessary to:

- Comply with applicable law
- Respond to lawful requests, subpoenas, or legal process
- Enforce our Terms of Service
- Protect the rights, safety, or security of Peptica, users, vendors, or others
- Investigate fraud, abuse, scraping, or unauthorized access

6. Sale or Sharing of Personal Information

Peptica does not currently sell personal information.

Peptica does not currently share personal information for cross-context behavioral advertising.

If we ever decide to sell personal information, share personal information for targeted advertising, use retargeting pixels, or disclose user data to advertisers or data brokers, we will update this Privacy Policy and provide any legally required notices, opt-out mechanisms, and privacy rights.

California privacy law gives users rights related to the sale or sharing of personal information, including the right to opt out of such sale or sharing where the law applies.

7. Vendor Listings and Public Information

Peptica may display information about suppliers, products, listings, resources, or publicly advertised offerings. Listing information may be collected from publicly available sources, supplier websites, user submissions, or other public materials.

Peptica does not guarantee that supplier or listing information is complete, accurate, current, lawful, safe, or suitable for any purpose.

Peptica is not responsible for the privacy practices of suppliers, third-party websites, advertisers, marketplaces, platforms, or external services linked from or referenced on Peptica.

When you visit a third-party website, your activity is governed by that third party's privacy policy and terms.

8. Data Retention

Peptica aims to retain user account information only as long as necessary to provide the service, operate paid access, support saved features, comply with legal obligations, resolve disputes, prevent abuse, and maintain security.

If you cancel your subscription, Peptica may stop using your account information for active subscription access, but some information may remain in account records, logs, saved-feature records, support records, or Stripe-related records.

If you request full account deletion, we will delete or de-identify personal information under our control, including account-associated saved listings and saved alerts where reasonably possible, unless we need to retain certain information for legal, security, fraud-prevention, dispute-resolution, accounting, tax, backup, or compliance purposes.

Stripe, Firebase / Google, and other third-party service providers may retain information independently according to their own legal, regulatory, fraud-prevention, accounting, security, and compliance obligations.

9. Account Deletion and Privacy Requests

You may request deletion of your Peptica account or personal information by contacting:

rjohnson10712@outlook.com

Please include the email address associated with your account so we can identify the relevant account.

We may need to verify your identity before completing a deletion or privacy request.

Deletion of your Peptica account does not automatically delete records maintained independently by Stripe, Firebase / Google, or other third-party service providers.

10. California Privacy Rights

Although Peptica is a small business and may not be subject to every requirement of the California Consumer Privacy Act, we provide the following information for California residents.

Depending on applicable law, California residents may have the right to:

- Know what personal information is collected
- Know how personal information is used
- Request deletion of personal information
- Request correction of inaccurate personal information
- Opt out of the sale or sharing of personal information
- Limit use of sensitive personal information, where applicable
- Not be discriminated against for exercising privacy rights

Peptica does not currently sell personal information or share personal information for cross-context behavioral advertising.

To submit a privacy request, contact:

rjohnson10712@outlook.com

11. Children and Age Restrictions

Peptica is intended only for users who are at least 18 years old.

Peptica does not knowingly collect personal information from children or minors. If we learn that we have collected personal information from a minor, we will delete it.

Peptica does not target children, minors, or users under 18.

12. Security

We use reasonable administrative, technical, and organizational measures to protect personal information. However, no website, database, server, or internet transmission is completely secure.

You are responsible for maintaining the confidentiality of your account credentials and for using secure devices and networks when accessing Peptica.

13. U.S.-Only Service

Peptica is intended for users located in the United States.

We do not intentionally target users in the European Union, United Kingdom, or other non-U.S. jurisdictions. If you are located outside the United States, do not use Peptica.

If we later expand outside the United States, we may update this Privacy Policy to address additional privacy laws, such as GDPR or UK GDPR.

14. Changes to This Privacy Policy

We may update this Privacy Policy from time to time.

If we make material changes, we may provide notice by posting the updated policy on peptica.tech, updating the effective date, or providing additional notice where required by law.

Your continued use of Peptica after an updated Privacy Policy is posted means you accept the updated policy.
